Bag Quotes

BG04

one must still have chaos in oneself to give birth to a dancing star. - Friedrich Nietzsche

BG07

this is what you shall do: love the earth and sun and the animals, despise riches, give alms to every one that asks, stand up for the stupid and crazy, devote your income and labor to others, hate tyrants, argue not concerning god, have patience and indulgence toward the people, take off your hat to nothing known or unknown or to any man or number of men, go freely with powerful uneducated persons and with the young and with the mothers of families, read these leaves in the open air every season of every year of your life, re-examine all you have been told at school or church or in any book, dismiss whatever insults your own soul, and your very flesh shall be a great poem - Walt Whitman

BG130

leap and the net will appear - Zen saying

BG51

if we all did the things we are capable of doing, we would literally astound ourselves. - Thomas Edison

BG61

there is no use trying, said Alice; one can't believe impossible things. i dare say you haven't had much practice, said the queen. when i was your age, i always did it for half an hour a day. why sometimes i've believed as many as six impossible things before breakfast. - Lewis Carroll

BG71

if you're going through hell, keep going - Winston Churchill
